

Team Science to Patients, a project of ME/cvs Vereniging, Holland, has recently completed a series of very informative videos with Dr. Charles Shepherd, medical adviser to The ME Association in the U.K. Links to the videos , as well as to complete transcripts of the broadcasts and question/answer chats, can be found on the English page of the website of the ME/cvs Vereniging, Holland

If you would like to read the complete transcripts at your leisure, we have posted a PDF on our website which you can download and print.
