

With the present implementation of the federal Affordable Care Act (the new federal health care law), it is useful to review and update some of the eligibility requirements for medical benefits under Medicare and, in Massachusetts, for Medicaid and the Health Care Safety Net. Several of the eligibility cut-offs have been raised, so disabled patients may be newly eligible for health insurance benefits. Learn more .